

totally management ltd

your business is our business

Best Legal Structure For Your Business

Are you considering setting up your business or have you already set up your business? Are you unsure whether to go it alone, work in partnership or set up as a company?

Attend this training workshop delivered by a solicitor and you will find out:

- The different types of legal structure, including sole trader, partnership and companies
- The pros and cons of each legal structure
- The tax implications for each legal structure
- The best legal structure to suit your personality and your business
- The practical steps involved in each structure, including the administration
- The jargons and what they mean
- Where to get further help